COLONEL STEALY HOPEFUL.

Sees a Splendid Chance for the Election of Mr. Bryan.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL New York, Oct. 28 .- Colonel O. O. Stealy, ington correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal, after a tour of the doubtful States East and West, is convinced that there is a splendid chance for Bryan to carry New York, that there is a fighting chance for New Jersey, and that Maryland, West Virginia and Delaware are safe for the Democratic ticket. "Bryan," said Colonel Stealy to-day, "has as much chance of carrying Ohio, Indiana and Illinois as McKinley. If the Democrats of Chicago carry Cook County, as they say they will, by 30,000, Bryan will carry Hilnois, for Cook County gave McKinley 71,000 in

"If the Democrats of Cincinnati, Cleve-land, Columbus and Dayton do one-half of what John R. McLean and Tom L. Johnson say they will, Bryan will carry Ohio.
"Greater New York will poll nearly 690,000 votes out of a registration of 630,000. In 1896, out of a vote of 540,000 in Greater New 1896, out of a vote of 540,000 in Greater New York, Bryan only got 225,000. He lost Greater New York by about 65,000. McKinley came down to the Harlem bridge with 203,000 more, carrying the State by 255,000. This year New York City, that gave Bryan only 125,000 votes in 1896, will give him 235,000, or a Democratic gain of 190,000. If a party can gain in New York 192,000 votes in two years, why can it not gain 165,000 votes in four years. It looks to me like a toss-up in New York. The Democrats certainly have a splendid chance to carry the State."

While Goddard was asleep a few nights ago the rat crept into the bed and began snawing on Goddard's big toe. Goddard thought it was a fly or insect and made no attempt at investigation, simply moving his foot occasionally.

Finally he felt a more stinging bite, and quickly running his hand to his foot found a big rat nestled in bed at his feet. The rodent had nibbled at his toe until the pool flowed. The rat escaped and Godra'd foot is aweiling.

VOTERS ANXIOUS TO HEAR DOCKERY.

Democratic Candidate for Govern or Overwhelmed With Requests to Speak at Ward Meetings.

TO REMAIN HERE THREE DAYS.

Addresses Fourth Ward Mass Meeting To-Morrow Night-Visiting Democrats Bring Good Tidings.

A M. Dockery, Democratic candidate for Governor, apent most of yesterday at Democtatic State headquarters, in conference with Chairman Seibert, arranging the details of the coming week of the campaign. Mr. Dockery will spend the first three days of the week in St. Louis. He has been overwhelmed with requests from the committeemen of every ward in the city to speak at their meetings the coming week, but the demands upon him from other por tions of the State have been so heavy and pressing that he has been compelled to divide his remaining time between the city and the interior of the State.

To-night he will address a mass meeting at Wellston, in the Suburban Garden, held inder the joint auspices of the Democrats of the Twent -eighth Ward and of St. Louis County. To-morrow night he will The Fourth Ward Democratic Club has the arrangements for this meeting in charge, and Captain Carmody, the president, promises one of the greatest demonstrations of the local campaign, A torchlight procession, headed by a brass band of thirty pieces, and the Fourth Ward Indian Marching Club, will be a feature of the demonstration, preceding the meeting. There will also be a pyrotechnic display. Wednesday evening Mr. Dockery will ad-dress another large mass meeting in South St. Louis, probably in Lemp's Hall, though the location has not yet been definitely decided upon, Thursday afternoon he will speak in Montgomery City, and in the evening in St. Charles. His assignments for the remainder of the campaign will be arranged at a conference to be held this rning at headquarters. Among the other visitors to State head-quarters yesterday were W. R. Pitts of Jefferson City, Senator Frank H. Farris of Steelville, John O. Long of Putosi, member of the State Committee; N. J. Winters of Milan, Congressman Robb of the Thirteenth District, C. C. Weaver of Springfield, Mayor James A. Reed of Kansas City, N. A. ## REPUBLICANS AT WAR.

Fierce Fight Between Jackson Coun-ty Factions. REPUBLIC SPECIAL Kansas City, Oct. S .- Republicans in Jackson County are being demoralized. Their first hopes of receiving aid and comfort from the losing faction of the Democratic party have been dissipated, and now come reports from all sides of dissension in their own headquarters. Walter S. Dickey, chairman of the County Committee, is being arraigned by friends of Walter Davis, brother of Web Davis. The Davis fight is enough to keep him busy, but the old Burnham-Dickey fight has reopened and the county chairman is being deserted by the leaders. He stands to-day alone except for the faithful adherence of City Assessor Charles Yost. The big Missouri Republican Ciub, with its 700 members, has not even held a club meeting since Dickey started to run the campaign. They declared they were sidetracked early in the campaign for fear that their leaders would develop strength, and now that they are sufficiently buried, they decline to get on the left of the line to make the column long, but at the same time be hidden by the dust from the Dickey men up in front. The negroes are roaring. They say they have not been allowed representation on the County Committee, nor on the ticket. Neither have they been permitted to furnish speakers at the ward meetings. Their pride is hurt, and they are threatening to hurl their registered vote of 4,629 to the Democrats. The Democrats have no idea they will get this vote solid, but even the Republicans at headquarters say there is every indication that 25 per cent of the negroes will desert them this year because of the way they have been rabosed.

Davis is lining up his friends arainst the county chairman for the rosumster, and in his stead put P. S. Brown, Jr., Brown was the Republican nominee for Mayor last spring, in order to get Dickey to assist at Washington getting a position for him, Brown told Dickey he could deliver the Rrown attength to Dickey for defeated candidate, Burnham en laimed the next nomination as an inherent right. When Davis loid him of Dickey's scheme to be nominated for Mayor himself he put none but Dickey and Ci Jackson County are being demoralized. Their first hopes of receiving aid and comfort from the losing faction of the Demo hand. All the defeated anti-Scannon candi-dates have reported at headquarters and have undertaken their work in the cam-paign in a thorough manner. They admit frankly that they are disappointed at los-ing the nominations, all the more so be-cause of the assurance of success. Never-theless, the fear of a Republican county-ring, such as the Democrats were five years breaking up in the City Hall, has welded the party as nothing else would.

DENIAL THAT DID NOT COUNT.

Republican Managers Again Fall to Clear Flory's Record. The managers of the Republican State ampaign, in their vain efforts to clear Joe campaign, in their vain efforts to clear Joe Flory's record as a nonunion man, made a remarkable mistake last week. Thomas Arnold, a switchman, living at No. 1896 Franklin avenue, made an affidavit, which was published some time ago, accusing Flory of having "scabbed" in the railroad strike of 1883. There is a Thomas Arnold employed as conductor on one of the railroads running out of St. Louis, and the Republican managers learned from him that he had made no such affidavit as published. They jumped to the conclusion that he was the man whose name was signed to the affidavit, and they at once published a denial of the affidavit over the signature of Thomas Arnold, the conductor.

Thomas Arnold, the conductor.

Thomas Arnold, the following self-explanatory letter, reiterating the statements made in his affidavit:

"I have noticed in the Globe-Democrat of October 26 and 27 considerable agitation in regard to a statement made by me, Thomas Arnold, that appeared in the 'Appeal.' As the original Thomas Arnold who made the affidavit that appeared in the 'Appeal.' I wish to emphatically impress upon the public that I was employed as switchman for the Bridge and Terminal during the strike of 1852, and was one of the men who went out on the strike during that period.

"My first railroad service was in the North Market street yards of the Wabash in 1876, as switch tender, and I remained there until 182; I was then employed as switchman by the St. Louis Bridge Com-Flory's record as a nonunion man, made a pany until 1889, and all the time I lost was during the 1883 strike. In 1889 I went back to the Wubash North St. Louis yards as switchman; from there to the Missouri Pa-cific yards, and from there to the Mer-chants' Bridge. About two years ago I quit the reflected business, and since that time bave been engaged in the moving business.

"I have no knowledge of this Arnold of Seladia, who was formerly a conductor, but have seen through reports in the Globe-Lemeerat that he bears the sume name as I do. I want it distinctly understood that I am the man who made the affidavit, and that the Arnold at Schalla and the one at St. Louis are two different persons."

PREDICT JETT'S ELECTION. Democrats of the Eighteenth District

Are Confident. REPUBLIC SPECIAL Edwardsville, Ill., Oct. 28-At the becinning of the last week of the campaign party leaders in the Eighteenth Congresdonal District of Illinois predict that the isonal District of Rimois predict that the listrict will return a Democratic Representative to Congress by a majority of 2,00. The assumption is based upon reports from each of the six counties composing the district, and which have been carefully verified. The contest is between the present neumbent, Thomas M. Jett of Hillsbore, and State Senator John J. Brenholt of Alon, who was nominated by the Republicans.

The Eighteenth District of Bilnois has been an important factor in State polities ever since its formation in 1852. The Firity-eighth General Assembly, a body laving a Democratic majority in each nouse, formed the district as a Democratic strict and it proved a surprise by going keepablican at the first two elections following. Frederick Reaman of Vandalia was elected in '94 by 2,500 majority, and on its death in '95. W. F. L. Hadley of Evanscille, was named his successor at a special election, carrying the district by 2,288 pluality.

For the election of '55 the Democrats named Thomas M Jett of Hillsboro, law partner of W. A. Howett, and regarded as one of the most brilliant young barristers in his county. Mr. Jett made an aggressive campaign, and carried the district by a plurality of 2.6%, an actual gain of over 5.60 vates in a single year. In '98 Mr. Jett defeated B. F. Johnson, a wealthy rallroad contractor of St. Elmo, for the place, and at this election cut the usual Republican majority of Madisen County from over 2.00 contractor of St. Elmo, for the place, and at this election cut the usual Kepublican majority of Madison County from over 2,000 down to 796.

The campaism of 1900 has been a vigorous one in the district. The Republicans in making Colonel Brenholt their nominee hoped that Alton and Madison County would roll up a large enough total of votes to offset the big Democratic majorities in the counties at the other end of the "shoestring" district. Mr. Jett has made a therough campaign for his part, and while making no rash assertions, believes that the amouncement of the various committees that he will be returned by an increased majority are founded on fact. He spoke at Upper Alton Friday night and at the conclusion of the meeting addressed a gathering in the college chapel upon special invitation of President McKay. To-night he speaks at Fosterburs, and Tuesday afternson at Alhambra, Tuesday night at Bethalto. Thursday night he will speak at Granite City. The remainder of the week will be put in in other counties, returning on Saturday night to Edwardsville, where the campaign will be closed with a mass meeting, at which General Alfred Orendorff will be the principal speaker.

Democratic Rally at Kirkwood. This evening there will be a raily of Democrats in the Armory at Kirkwood under the auspices of the Bryan-Dockery Ciub. David A. Ball and several other speakers will make addresses. Indications point to a very enthusiastic meeting, as clubs in adjoining communities have promised to attend in a body. There will be a parade.

ILLINOIS GERMANS INDIGNANT. Three Democrats Say They Were

Tricked by Republicans. Winchester, Ill., Oct. 28.-The St. Louis

Globe-Democrat to-day contained what purports to be an address signed by some German-American Democrats, urging upon Germans to vote for McKinley for President and Richard Yates for Governor of Illinois. This same address printed in German, with the signatures of German residents of Winchester attached, was received through the mall to-day by John H. Pieper, Lambert Metzger and John Kuck, all three Demo crats. And what was their surprise to find their own signatures to the document, in connection with those of eleven other names of German-American citizens all lifelong Republicans of this city.

Out of the fourteen signatures from Win chester only the names of the three Democrats appear in the Globe-Democrat. The names of the Republican signers from this town are carefully omlitted. The scheme that was worked by the Republican managers here to obtain the signatures of these Democrats is best told by Mesurs. Metzger, Pieper and Kuck themselves,

It is as follows: "We, the undersigned, find in the Globe-Democrat that we, as German-Americans, will support McKinley and Yates. This is a Republican campaign lie, very adrottly worked by the Republican managers, Some time ago a lifelons Republican of this city, a German, cam around with a paper and said that he wanted the signature of some Germans in order to get some German literature, and that it was necessary for him to obtain a certain number of signers in order to get it. He made no particular explanation, but said it was all right. Not looking for any political schemes, we signed it. The names of those who had signed the paper were all good citizens, but strong Republicans. Nothing more was thought of the matter with a signer of the same of the said of the s more was thought of the matter until we re ceived the circulars in the mail to-day con-taining a facsimile of our signatures and saw our names in the Globe-Democrat. For who obtained our signatures through a conniving trick to a false document we wish to say that we are for Bryan and Alschuler and will vote the Democratic ticket on Tuesday, November 6, 1966.

POLICE SAY ALVORD IS NEAR NEW YORK

Hiding in Vicinity of Mount Vernon and Is in Communication With His Wife.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Oct. 28.-Chief of Police Foley of Mount Vernon believes that Cornelius L. Alvord. Jr., the defaulting note teller of the First National Bank, is in hiding in the vicinity of Mount Vernon, and that he is in constant communication with his wife. Frank K. Wessl, a machinist, employed by the New York Central Railroad, says he saw a man of Alvard's description driving through a small piece of woods a mile east of Yonkers at 1 o'clock Saturday morning. The man was alone in a light road wagon and was seen an hour later by an-other witness in front of the Alvord resi-dence, in Summit avenue, Mount Vernon.

Chief Foley said to-night:
"Barney, the coachman for Aivords, told two of my men that matters would soon be straightened out and settled. I am convinced Alvord is somewhere near here," Contradicting the story that Alvord is in communication with his wife, Doctor Camp heil, the family physician, said to-day that Mrs. Alvera had collapsed completely from the nervous strain to which she had been subjected and that she had been compelled to abandon for the present her plan for leaving Mount Vernon

Since Alvord's embezzlement many sto ries have been current of the strict espion-age which banking-houses have placed over their cierks. One of these stories concerns the German Savings Bank, at Fourteenth street and Pourth avenue.

It was reported to-night that five clerks of that institution have been discharged because detectives discovered that they were associates of gambiers.

RIVAL RALLIES UNITED.

Unique Political Demonstration at Brooklyn, Ill.

The most harmonious political demonstraion of the East Side campaign took place at Brooklyn late Saturday night, when pegro members of both parties mutually assisted each other by attending opposition railies, Republicans cheered for Bryan and Democrats yelled for McKinley. It was a love feast, made necessary by a shortage of 'rooters" in both ranks.

Many of the representative Brooklyn politicians were away from town. Less than a dozen Democrats were at home or account of the big rally in East St. Louis, and as both the Democrats and the Republicans had planned a rally for Saturday night they decided to "pool" the affair and make it a free silver-imperialism conclave. The Democrats commenced the love feast Eight of their number met in the vicinity of the City Hall and a spellbinder mounted a barrel to make a speech. He had just shouted "fellow-citizens" when one of the sudience of seven interrupted him.

"Mr. Speaker," said the well-wisher, "I nove that we call on our friendly contem ocraries, the Republicans, for assistance. This here jam is too thin."

His suggestion was adopted and a com-

His suggestion was adopted and a committee of two Bryannies was sent to negotiate with the Republicans in session in the City Hall. The Republicans thought it was a surrender to Hannaism they were about to receive, but convinced to the contrary by the proposition to merge the two meetings, they all voted yes.

The Republicans joined the Democrats, and the orator of the latter party resumed his speech for Bryan and urged Republicans to organize as his followers had. When the meeting ended the Democrats cheered for McKinley and the Brooklyn Republicans.

TWO NAMES ADDED TO LIST.

Ministers Demand Execution Prince Yi and Ying Nien.

London, Oct. 29.-Doctor Merrison, wiring the Times from Pekin, under date of October 26, says:

"The foreign Ministers, in conference to day, decided to add the names of Prince Yi and Ying Nien to those of the seven offi-cials whose execution France has demanded. "It is said that the commander of the allied troops at Pao-Ting-Fu has arreste the Provincial Treasurer, who was chien; responsible for the ill-treatment of the responsible for the ill-treatment of the

Two Prominent Indianans Have Abandoned McKinley. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Laporte, Ind., Oct. 28.-Sigmund Mayer of Marshall County, who was a leader in the Gold Democratic movement in 1896, has given out a statement that he will vote for stryan and Stevenson. He says that if Mr. Olney can vote for Bryan every other Gold Democrat can consistently follow in his footsteps.

Sylvester Bertrain of Starke County, who stumped Indiana for McKiniey in 18%, has also declared for Bryan and has taken the stump to advocate the cause of Democracy.

REPORTER TAKES A MINISTER'S PULPIT.

Replies to the Pastor's Criticism of the Modern Newspaper.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 28.-George F Grassle, a reporter on the staff of one of the Milwaukee daily newspapers, occupied the pulpit of Plymouth Congregational Church, in which he discussed "The Ethical Side of the Newspaper Business, or the Philosophy of the Press." Mr. Grassie's sermon was in reply to one delivered by the paster of the church, the Reverend Judson Titsworth. The preacher thought the newspaper was influenced by too much commercial spirit and thought the time was coming when the editor would be guided by a more altruistic spirit. Mr. Grassle started out by quoting several passages from the Bible, coupling with them the words, "Know thyself."

In brief, Mr. Grassle said: "It is the duty of the newspaper to help the average citizen to know himself, to interest nim in what is going on about him, to give him just enough goodness and just enough badness, just enough religion and just enough atheism, just enough spiritual ity and just enough pugliism, to keep him interested, and to thus make him know himself and incidentally to sell the paper."
